

klove is the only chistian radio station that we can pick up in our area.klove has a lasting positive effect with its positive influence that we can not receive through other programming.All other stations have inappropriate programming for young children through the music or the banter of the djs. i think it would be an injustice to loose this valuable programming in our area.